

Would you like to sing in Hawaii?
How about sing incredible masterworks?

SING WITH US!

---

The San Francisco Concert Chorale, conducted by John Emory Bush, seeks experienced singers to join the 35th season.

In our exciting anniversary season the Chorale will travel to Honolulu, Hawaii for a collaboration concert with the Hawaii Vocal Arts Ensemble. In addition to this exciting spring event, the season includes Ottorino Respighi's tender and exquisite Laud to the Nativity and J.S. Bach's magnificent B Minor Mass.

WHEN: Wednesday, August 22*
TIME: 6:00 - 9:00 pm (by appointment)
SCHEDULE: 415.840.0675
LOCATION: Community Music Center
544 Capp St. (btwn 20th & 21)

Paid positions are available!

We rehearse Sunday evenings in San Francisco.

*Additional audition dates are available

Our Mission

The San Francisco Concert Chorale seeks to create a vibrant community of vocal musicians interested in furthering their musical education. We focus on the rehearsal process, providing world-class musicians to coach and mentor singers to an exacting professional standard. The end of the journey is a celebration of performance that is shared by the external community.

San Francisco Concert Chorale
www.sfconcertchorale.org
415.840.0675